

BOONE

MONUMENT TO BE REPAIRED

Mutilated Portions to be Replaced and Iron Fence Will Bar
Vandals.

The Boone Monument Commission, which was created by act of the last Legislature, met Wednesday afternoon and took steps for the repair of the monument, which is resting over the graves of the pioneer and his wife in the commanding position in the State cemetery here. The legislature appropriated the sum of $2,000 for the repair of the monument, and the Bryan Station Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, appropriated $500 more, making a total of $2,500 available for the purpose.

For years visitors to the historic site have picked and chipped at the monument until it is scarcely the semblance of the shaft it was when it was placed over the tomb of Daniel Boone over a half century ago, when his body was brought back to Kentucky for final interment from Missouri, where he had died.

Henry Craik, Superintendent of the State cemetery here, was elected chairman of the commission. He was authorized to contract at once for complete replacement of the mutilated portions of the old shaft. It will be taken down, and the figures of Boone, on one side, and his wife, Rebecca Boone, on the other, restored. An iron fence will then be built around the marker to protect it from vandals. The Boone monument is located on one of the most picturesque sites in the State cemetery, being on the edge of the high precipice over the river, overlooking all of South Frankfort, while in the distance across the valley looms up the new State Capitol.

JONES-COOKSEY.

Beautiful Church Wedding of Prominent Young People at Bowl-Green.

The following special from Bowl-Green will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. Cooksey in Frankfort, where he resided while Secretary to ex-Senator Wm. Lindsey.

The wedding of Mr. Paul E. Cooksey and Miss Elsie Jones was solemnized at Christ's Episcopal Church in this city, the Rev. W. K. Marshall officiating. The church was beautifully decorated. The bride was attired in a handsome traveling gown with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses, and was given away by her father, Col. W. H. Jones. Miss Elizabeth McLemore, of Nashville, was the maid of honor. She wore a tailored gown of white cloth with black hat and carried white roses.

PRESSDAY JOYS.

There's trouble in the print-shop
No language can express,
For Friday's rolled around again,
The day we go to press.

The compositors are hustling fast,
Each has a dirty proof,
The make-up man is cussin'
In a way to raise the roof.

The "devil's" pried a galley full
Of solid Nonpareil.
The foreman's saying things to him
That makes the brimstone smell.

The stenographer is jawin' 'bout
An ink-spot on her dress,
And any gold-durned fools can tell
We're trying to get to press.

Everything is all "balled up,"
The forms are in a mess,
And now the Old Man's asking:
When we're going to press?

Through the room there rings aloud
A piercing hell-born wail—
The office-dog is yelpin', cause
They've stepped upon his tail.

The pressman now is ready—but
The d-d old forms won't "lift,"
So he whistles out a "dutchman"
And gives his quid a shift.

The forms are on the press at last,
The press is running great—
But we've got to take 'em off again—
"Forgot to change the date!"

They're on again; the motor's down;
We're running swift and slick,
But a paper's on the rollers now,
And you bet it's there to stick.

The whole d-d bunch is mad as sin,
And cussin' more or less,
For hell breaks loose on Friday, when
The paper goes to press.

ELKS

At Richmond to Give a Minstrel
Early in March.

The following note from the Richmond Climax will be of interest to the many friends of popular Wm. Pattie in Frankfort:

"At their regular meeting Friday evening, Richmond Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, unanimously decided to give a minstrel during the first or second week in March. The performance will be under the personal direction of Mr. William Pattie, of Frankfort, a nephew of Dr. C. D. Pattie, of this city, who is well known here, having attended Central University. He is an expert minstrel man, having for several years been one of the shining lights in the Ted E. Faust famous minstrels. He possesses a tenor voice of rare sweetness, and will be heard on this occasion in several numbers. The cast will be composed of local talent, and a special set of scenery, with orchestra elevation, will be supplied by Mr. Pattie. This promises to be the social event of the season, and will be looked forward to with pleasure by the public.

We are always on the run, running for new customers, and we deliver your work on the run. Try us and see how fast we can run out a job for you.
